

Priority Marketing Fireworks Telecon Reservation

Yes Kelly, I do want to discover how to add the sparkle and buzz to my Pyrotechnics Marketing and Sky-Rocket my Sales Results. During this 60-minute teleconference, scheduled for Monday, November 7th at 3.30 p.m., Carol gives her most considered answer to my most burning question about how to write the most responsive, compelling, fascinating, attention grabbing, results generating sales letters and adverts. And I get to hear all the answers to the questions other business owners are asking that give me even more insight to how to use this spectacular marketing magic. And all for the incredibly low, price of just £27<sup>+VAT</sup>

Here's the question I want answered <sup>(Please print)</sup>: _____

- I really like the idea of being able to listen again to the teleconference afterwards so I can pick up crucial techniques and advice I might miss during the call. I look forward to being able to download the audio-recording of the live event. And this is all included in the price I'm paying to participate.
- Unfortunately downloading an MP3 file that could be anything from 25 to 36 Mbytes is completely impractical for me, so I want you to send me the CD containing the recording of the teleconference. There is an additional charge of just £10<sup>+VAT</sup> to cover production costs and P&P.
- Kelly, unfortunately I cannot make that date and time. But I really do want to have access to this insightful and valuable information so I can use it to turn my letters and adverts into high-performing sales generators. Although I appreciate I cannot ask my own specific question. Please rush me my personal copy of the teleconference CD as soon as it is available. I have access to this valuable information for the low price of just £15<sup>+VAT</sup>, including P&P charge.
